My Avery Dennison™

A one-stop portal for all your product and order-related needs

At Avery Dennison, we love providing our world-class customer service. But we understand that sometimes you want to take care of things yourself. That's why we've launched My Avery Dennison, our online customer portal.

My Avery Dennison adds digital functionality to your existing business by providing a website login account to offer a fast and efficient one-stop experience for browsing and ordering Avery Dennison materials.

Ordering materials just got quick.

Now, our "Quick Order" feature makes ordering especially fast and easy. View our inventory of thousands of solutions from your browser, compare them to find just the right material for your application, and place your order straight away.

Access all product information at your fingertips.

Search products and prices, download data sheets, review service programs, request quotes and samples, and submit claims – all with a few clicks.

Visualize your order.

See all past orders, check delivery status of orders-in-progress (a great source of data for your business analytics), and request order-related paperwork.

Customize and optimize your rolls.

Our slit optimization feature lets you visualize and plan for how you want to slit each roll for maximum efficiency and productivity.

Access anytime, anywhere.

Available on multiple devices, you can access the portal wherever you are.

Remember, we're still here for you.

My Avery Dennison isn't a replacement for your Avery Dennison sales representative. We are still a phone call or an email away, whenever you need expert guidance or follow-up.
