

Discover the first vegan-certified labels on the market

Introducing facestocks, adhesives and liners made without animal derivatives and testing

Get to know the products in our new vegan label range! Ideal for consumers who've embraced a cruelty-free lifestyle, it provides a similar level of performance to traditional alternatives, contains no products of animal origin and was created without animal testing. The range is responsibly sourced and certified by EVE VEGAN® – an independent organization established by Vegan France.

- Includes paper facestocks, adhesives and liners that can be mixed and matched according to your needs
- Suitable for the beauty, food and beverage, wine and spirits and home and personal care sectors
- Certification makes it easy to assure consumers that a brand's packaging contains no animal-derived products, including animal-based GMOs, and that no animal testing was performed on any of the components
